Date Night Ideas - No Reservation

Needed

Published November 7, 2022

With a bit of creativity, and some help from Royco’s convenient products and recipes, an at home date night can be a standing appointment between you and your bae.

KITCHEN COUNTER TAPAS

Forget about those noisy, trendy restaurants. We’ve got a better, more intimate idea. Turn your kitchen counter into a private Tapas Bar! All it takes are a few delectable small plates – Meatballs and Potato Wedges, a bowl of olives, perhaps a quick salad stack, and a tall jug of a refreshing drink. All that needs to be added is your someone special. And there you have it - romantic Tapas for two – at the kitchen counter.

MOROCCAN LOUNGE NIGHTS

Bring an exotic night out into your own living room by setting up an incredible spread on your coffee table. On the menu, this spicy, fragrant Beef Stew. Serve it on a bed of couscous or spiced rice, and top with toasted almond flakes. Transform your lounge into a dining space that transports you to another world. Throw some scatter cushions on the floor, light a candle, and cover the coffee table in an ornate piece of fabric. Just like that you have a dazzling date night in the comfort of your own home.

STARLIT PICNIC

Is there anything better than stargazing with someone special on a warm, summer night? There’s no need to go any further than your very own backyard or apartment balcony to kickback and connect. Layout a picnic blanket and whip up a quick salad, toss Royco’s Marinated Mushroom, Boerewors, and Apricot sticks on the fire. Now, leave the devices inside and enjoy nothing but the stars and each other’s company. It’s what movies are made of...

Date nights can become a weekly occasion. With a little imagination and some quick, easy and delicious food, spending time with your other half can be a dreamy affair right from the comfort of your own home.
