Vegetarian

Replace the chicken breasts with brinjal cubes or sliced button mushrooms.

Family Friendly

Omit the raw red onion and coriander as garnishes if your children don't like punchy toppings.

Cook's tips:

You can air-fry the chicken at 180 °C for 6–7 minutes, or until just cooked through. Turn them over halfway through the cooking time.

For extra-crispy bases, put your baking sheets in the oven to heat before you slide the pizzas onto them.

Method

1. 1.

First prepare the chicken. Place a chicken breast on a board and, with your knife held parallel to the board, slice it in half horizontally and lengthways to make two thin 'leaves'. Repeat with the other breasts.

2. 2.

In a medium bowl, mix together the oil, lemon juice and 2 Tbsp (30ml) of the powder from the sachet of Royco® Butter Chicken Curry Dry Cook-In Sauce.

3. 3.
Spread the flavoured oil over both sides of the chicken. Heat a non-stick pan and fry the chicken for about 3 minutes per side, or until just cooked through. If the chicken sticks, add a little more oil. You can also air-fry the chicken (see Cook's tips, below).
4. 4.
Remove from the heat and cut into cubes or strips.
5. 5.
Heat your oven to 210 °C.
6. 6.
Tip the contents of the sachet of Royco® Creamy Tomato Pasta Sauce into the same bowl you mixed the oil in and whisk in the remaining Royco® Butter Chicken Curry Dry Cook-In Sauce powder.
7. 7
Spread a generous layer of the sauce over each pizza base and top with grated cheese.
8. 8
Scatter the chicken cubes and half of the red onion slices on top.
9. 9
Slide the pizzas onto baking sheets and bake at 210 °C for about 8 minutes, or until the cheese is bubbling.
10. 10
Top with the remaining raw red onion slices and fresh coriander leaves, and serve immediately.
